Build a Library of Choral Expertise.

Through the medium of video, ACDA on LOCATION brings to you the expertise of distinguished choral conductors as they lecture, rehearse, and perform.

Volume 1 focuses on the children's choir with the Glen Ellyn Children's Chorus and its immediate past conductor, Doreen Rao, who shares her "artistic approach" to the music education of children.

Volume 2 is an interview with Dr. Howard Swan, 1987 ACDA National Convention Honoree. Dr. Swan reviews the history of American choral music during the first half of the twentieth century, discusses the present state of choral music in church and school, and gives learned advice to the young choral conductor.

Volume 3 features Jester Hairston, internationally renowned black composer, arranger, conductor, and 1989 ACDA National Convention Honoree. In this interview, Jester Hairston traces the history of the black spiritual in America, gives suggestions for interpretation, and demonstrates the use of rhythm and dialect in the music.

All three VHS videotapes are available from the ACDA National Headquarters in Lawton for $37.50 each.
